

10-8-16 Watercourses leading to and within city -- Mill privileges.

They may control the water and watercourses leading to the city and regulate and control the watercourses and mill privileges within the city; provided, that the control may not be exercised to the injury of any right already acquired by actual owners.

Amended by Chapter 378, 2010 General Session